

Arrested @ Work

A conversation with NYC
reporter and UC alum

John P. Wise

6pm Thursday, October 2

Center for Community Engagement Stratford Heights

*UC Journalism Program
UC Association of Black Journalists
UC Society of Professional Journalists*

Invite you to attend

Arrested @ Work

A conversation with NYC reporter and UC alum John P. Wise

This summer, former News Record editor-in-chief John P. Wise traveled to Denver to cover the Democratic National Convention and to St. Paul to cover the Republican National Convention for Fox's national network of local TV Web sites. While in St. Paul, he not only reported the news, he made news as one of a group of journalists arrested while covering a protest.

Come to hear him share his stories about the summer, life as a television/internet journalist and Karl Rove. Then STAY to watch the Joe Biden/Sarah Palin vice-presidential debate!

Snacks and good conversation provided FREE of charge.

- 6 p.m. conversation with John P. Wise
- 8 p.m. vice presidential debate-watching party

Where: UC Center for Community Engagement
2639 Clifton Avenue, Stratford Heights

Questions: 513-556-1559, 513-556-6415, journalism@uc.edu

Sponsored by
The Journalism Program
and
The UC Center for Community Engagement

These events are FREE and open to the public.